Senator Calder, Chairman of the special Senate Committee on Reconstruction and Production, has been n conference with Samuel Untermyer, counsel to the Committee, and it is said that he may join him in the lavestigation, with the prospect of greatly extending its scope and posaibly bringing about Federal action.

Backer is the first man to be indicted as a result of the Lockwood Committee expose. He testified that be got the $25,000 from Ephraum Levy to have a strike called off at the Textile Building, Seventh Avenue and fist Street. He first said he lost the money at the race track and playing cards, and later said he had testified falsely and that he had given it to a couple of strangers he met at the Hotel Chatham, They looked like 'en-workingmen," he said, and explained that this meant walking del-

When Mr. Untermyer learned that Backer had appeared, he naked Chairman Lockwood to adjourn the hearing and went to the Criminal Courts Building, where he arranged with Samuel Levy, attorney for Backer, to produce him to-day. The adjournment of the committee was until next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The intermission is required to organize a larger investigation staff. Mr. Untermyer said.

The adjournment came after two brothers, Frank and Walter Melton, extorted by Brindell, and Henry Hanlein, contractor on the new Court gruse, admitted having received a esterious telephone call from John T. Hettrick Thursday night.

During recess Harry Melton begged Mr. Untermyer for permission to correct the story he fold on the stand the previous day because it was untrue. He had been influenced by his brother to perjure himself, he said, His story was that he did not work in collusion with Brindell when he was "pushed into" a you with Mars Wininson which Wininson had been unable to swing alone.

When the hearing was resumed he was told to take the stand and give the true story of his dealings. He began by saying he had at one time and another paid Brindell-$1,500 in order to keen on with his work as a house wrenker. This testimony followed:

BRINDELL TOOK JOB AWAY FROM HIM.
